Writing

One of my the most fascinating experience reading books is the book by famous Russian writer Fedor Dostoevsky and his book called "Crime and Punishment". In this book all what happening goes in surprising unexpected direction. But now I'm talking about the main character Rodion Raskolnikov and his strange and scary delusions.

Before I start I'll tell you who this Raskolnikov is and what did he does. Rodion is an ex-student who was expelled out from a university. His mother helps him with money and often sends then to him. He also has a sister which is always happy to help him with his problems, but he doesn't accept any help except money from his mother. Sometimes when he doesn't have money he says for his apartment with some silver staff.

And he talk about his first awful decision. His landlady was awful, creepy old woman who always put a high prices for apartment. One day, Raskolnikov had enough of all this bad behavior from her. Murder. He decided to murder her. He planned every thing. And at this day he took an axe from a garden and a crucifix and he maid Lisa.
 Later he took all money that his old lady had, but he didn't use them. That was a big surprise.
 After and I want to say that I recommend this book because it shows how hard can life provide a human. But it's not for every body. Not everyone want to hear about a real-life problems because they want to live in their pink world without decisions that people do and I certainly read this book for a another time.
