I read a book in which the main character behaved in a surprising way, and now I want to tell you about it. This is a book of I. A. Goncharov which is called "Oblomov".

The main character of this book is Ilya Illich Oblomov, a young man who was spending the biggest part of his life in his house. He didn't go for walks, visit public places or communicate a lot with other people. But when he met a woman, which he later got to love in, Oblomov changed very much and it surprised me a lot. In order to spend more time with Olga the main character began to go outside, visit public places and by one word became another person and changed in good way

I recommend this book for reading because it is very interesting and life life-teaching. There is also a theme of love in it, so it will be interesting for girls as well.
